

Bridges / Monuments

McLean County has numerous notable bridges throughout the county, including four that cross the Green River. The most notable bridges:

The Livermore Bridge.

Has made it into Ripley's Believe It or Not for being the "only bridge in the world that starts in one county, crosses two rivers and a different county, then ends up back in the county in which it started".

Historic Overlook.

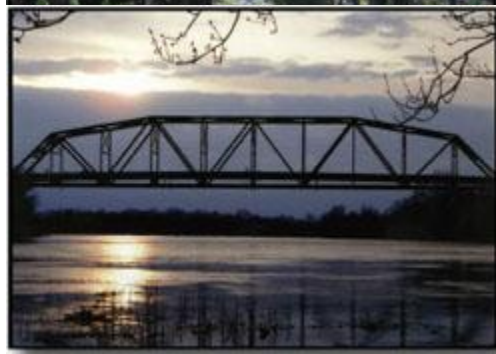

The confluence of the Green and Rough Rivers atop the former 1872 railroad bridge abutment at the Livermore Riverfront Park.

Wooden Bridge Park.

features the original wooden bridge, the Island Station, a dance hall

Both bridges were named in honor of the first American to settle in McLean County. Gresham was born in McLean County near Beech Grove honoring Another view of the Veteran's Memorial Bridge that crosses the Green River at Calhoun and Rumsey.

Monuments

Monuments from historical markers, Civil War monuments and World War Veterans plus much more.

Memorial Site for James Bethel Gresham, first American killed in WWI. Gresham was from the Beech Grove community.

Historic Marker on the outskirts of Livermore - Livermore Bridge

Historic Marker on William Worthington who (Worthington).

Historic Marker on Mount Saint Joseph (the McLean/Daviess)

Original house from the battlefield of Sacramento.

Historic Marker of Island Wooden Bridge Park
commemorating the wooden bridge built in 1872.

Island Wood Bridge, c. 1872

location of the first Court Case in the C

A few of the ramento Civil War

Historic Marker on Hwy 136/56 (near Beech Grove). James Bethel Gresham, first American killed in WWI.

Nathan Bedford Forrest Reconnoitered Historic Marker

Historic Marker located at intersection of Hwy 431 and Hwy 138.

Rumsey Historical Marker.

Below are views of County.

